MISSOURI LAD WINS AGAIN.

PROVES HIMSELF BESTERLING'S MAS-TER IN HANDICAP AT CITY PARK.

Five Favorites Get Home in Front-Nicol Rides Three Winners-Ziephen Takes

the Youngster Race.

New Orleans, La., February 8 .- In winning the handicap at one mile and an eighth, which was the fea-ture at City Park today, Missouri Lad again proved superiority over Besterling and incidentally set at rest stories started after their meeting at the Fair Grounds last week. The gossips were then unable to account for the Cook gelding's finishing so far in front of Besterling. In the race today, although he was top weight of the three starters, Missouri Lad held the public's fancy and was backed. Just on suspicion Goldic was the second choice, but Besterling had heavy support just before post time and closed in demand. The riders of all three had waiting orders and because of this there was more of a desire to avoid going to the front than usually obtains. Besterling had to take the usually obtains. front running, for he got away from the clear while Goldic and Missouri Lad were indulging in a bumping match. Nicol was easily able to rate his mount in behind the other two. ning of the race was from the middle of the stretch turn and there again Nicol outgeneraled the other boys and, under a good hand ride, landed his mount winner by a neck from Besterling, with Goldic beaten off.

The score of the day's results showed five winning favorites, one winner a second choice and the other outsider in Bazil, the long shot winner of the fourth race. The second choice to land was Clifton Forge and he is reported to have been the medium of a "killing." He was lucky to win. Asterisk which he beat a length, would undoubtedly have won but for being knocked back at the start. As it was there was only a length between them at the finish and Asterisk was the better horse in the Edward Corrigan earned a purse with Planute at odds-on in the sixth and he would have repeated with Goldess in the seventh but for the fact that the latter ran out on the first turn, only to co fast when straightened and wind up a good third to Evie Greene and Gold Coin.

Nicol scored his first of three winning mounts with Ziephen in the two-year-old race. The Schulte colt is a fast breaker and had a winning lead on the others from the beginning. He was eased up at the finish.

NO KEEN CONTESTS AT ASCOT PARK.

Poor Card, Listless Sport, but a Big Crowd and Heavy Speculation.

Los Angeles, Cal., February 8 .- The dull card offered by Secretary Boden today was unrelieved by any close finishes. The racing was the dullest of the present meeting. Despite the poor offering, the almost summer weather drew out the largest crowd of the week. The books got a terrible drubbing as every winner was generously supported. The de feat of the fast mare Sanfara, although not a surprise to the talent, was a source of much disappoint ment to the public in general, which had come to the belief that she was invincible at six furlongs. Don Domo simply played with his opponents all of the last furlong. Jockey Harris' reappearance in the saddle was greeted with loud acclaim. He had two mounts, but the best he could do was to finish

BREEDING BUREAU'S PROGRESS.

New York, February 8.—The Breeding Bureau has placed thoroughbred stallions for public service in thirty-nine counties today and hopes to have horses of the breeding season.

The brown horse Spring, by Atheling, out of Gala, by Hambleton, which has been placed with Floyd S. Carlisle, Watertown, Jefferson County, N. Y., is one of the greatest additions to the breeding interests of this state; individually probably th most attractive.

A well-known horseman said of him: "Well, I know which horse's get will be most conspicuous show ring in a few years, and if Spring is put in show shape I would as soon have his chances blue ribbon at the National Horse Show a any stallion in the country.

Atheling, the sire of Spring, has been a success in the stud and all his get have the flashy good looks of their sire. Atheling is a Sterling horse, and nothing more is necessary to be said of his male line. Spring, like all the Athelings, was good racehorse, winning twenty-one races from his two-year-old to his four-year-old form. two-year-old he was unplaced but three times in seventeen starts.

Another most important acquisition is the chestnut horse St. Carolus, by St. Blaise, out of Carina. St. Carolus is 16 hands 2 inches high and weighs over This horse has been doing stud duty at Cortlandt H. Smith's Hampton Stock Farm in Cortlandt Smith, who donated St. Carolus to the Breeding Bureau, was a few years ago abou the most prominent horse show exhibitor in the country; his string of show horses being well known From New York to the Pacific coast, and when he purchased St. Carolus he did so especially as a sire of handsome, useful halfbreeds, and his get have more than borne out this young soprtsman's views in the show ring and hnuting field. St. Carolus goes to James B. Williams at Troy in Rensselaer county.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE PALACE HOTEL HANDICAP.

This afternoon will be marked by the thirteenth running of the Palace Hotel Handicap. It is one of the longest established events offered by the California Jockey Club, and in its time has fallen to such thoroughly good racers as Ruinart, Traverser, Bendoran, Claude and Proper, such other cracks as Buckwa, Candelaria, Favonius, Dainty, Lovdal, Napamax, Yellow Tail, Kenilworth and Honiton showing in its list of beaten candidates. For this afternoon it presents an unusual feature in that five of the eight carded starters may run as a coupled entry. The record of the race is as follows:

"BOOKMAKERS ARE NOT NECESSARY."

John E. Madden Urges Track Managers in Tennessee to Go On with Meetings.

John E. Madden, who as the owner and trainer of scores of excellent racehorses in the past ten and the proprietor of Hamburg Place Lexington, Ky., is one of the most widely known nen of the turf, says that the passage of the Foust bill in Tennessee and the agitation against bookmakers and betting in other sections is taken too seriously. He says that bookmakers are not necessary to the life of racing or to the success of the meetings and he believes that the passage of such as that which has just been the Governor of Tennessee will prove a blessing in disguise. In an open letter to the managers and owners of Tennessee racetracks Mr. Madden says: In an open letter to the managers and Remember that this law recently passed does not make contests between horses and the prizes therefore illegal, but is aimed at the bookmaker. No law has ever been or ever will be framed to deny a man the right to say to his fellow-man: "I bet you," and this privilege is enjoyed by eyery one cunless he loses). The loss of the revenue derived from the bookmakers will, of course, be felt, but the demands on bookmakers in the west have been extortionate, resulting in unduly large profits to the track owners, and if these owners can only coatent themselves with a moderate profit I believe the gate money will furnish it.

Before the existence of the bookmaker the old day "quarter races" were largely attended and thousands of dollars changed hands. Why should not similar conditions obtain today?

Take, for instance, the Kentucky Derby or the Latonia Derby, where there is no bar to betting. If the bookmakers were to go on a strike is it to be supposed that the attendance would be lessened thereby?

No. You would hear all around you the echo of "I bet you" and the "welchere" would be few.

If the bookmakers were to go on a strike is it to be supposed that the attendance would be lessened thereby?

No. You would hear all around you the echo of "I bet you," and the "welchers" would be few.

The enormous attendance at the county fairs in states where no betting is permitted goes to prove the attractiveness of racing, either running or trotting, to the general public.

The love of racing, where properly conducted, has of late years taken too deep a hold on the affections of the American people to be eliminated from its list of outdoor pastimes.

If the people of Tennessee, instead of losing heart, would go on with their contemplated meetings, disregarding the enforced absence of the baakmaker, they will find, I predict, the financial results not so disastrous as they imagine. Private wagers can always be made, and at a meeting held last year under these conditions brought to the association the most successful results of its career.

The greater part of betting is done on the "nod." It is as necessary to maintain one's credit on the racetrack as it is in other lines of business, and a horseman disregarding his obligations would soon find himself in ill favor with the association and run the risk of having his entries rejected.

My suggestion to you, managers and owners of Tennessee racetracks, is to convert your betting sheds into saddling paddocks, with a baleony to give the fair sex an opportunity to view the thoroughbred as he is saddled for his race, and you will hear the words "I bet you" on all sides; and, further, I venture to say, that the gate receipts will surpass those taken when the bookmakers held sway instead of the thoroughbred.

To those bitterly opposed to betting on horses, let them remember it is after all extremely difficult to define what is and what is not granbling. Take those taken when the bookmakers held sway instead of the thoroughbred.

To those bitterly opposed to betting on horses, let them remember it is after all extremely difficult to define what is and what is not gambling. Take for instance insurance. What is it but a gamble on a house burning down, a life ended or a ship sinking. And yet there are few who are not today carrying life insurance, the rankest kind of a bet, on the length of their days. It is safe to say that the lawmakers of Tennessee, who passed the antibetting bill, indulge in this form of speculation. In most instances the horse is backed on a definite knowledge of his ability to perform the task set before him, under certain weight, condition of track, etc., and the risk is nothing like what those on the outside imagine it to be.

Everything can be overdone, and where this has been the case in racing it should be righted, but the grand sport should not be wiped out of existence for the errors of the few.

J. E. MADDEN.

Daily Racing Form invites letters on this subject

Daily Racing Form invites letters on this subject from all thinking men of the turf.

Since writing the letter printed above, Mr. Madden has suggested that the breeders of thoroughbreds in Kentucky and Tennessee subscribe to a fund sufficient to guarantee the New Memphis Jockey Club and the Tennessee Breeders' Association against any losses they may incur if they will give meetings next spring without the presence of bookmakers.

NO VOTE ON THE AMIS BILL.

Little Rock, Ark., February 8 .- There was no conclusive action on the Amis anti-betting bill in the lower house of the Legislature today. A motion to suspend the rules and put it on its passage without another voting was lost. This was followed by a motion to refer it back to the Judiciary Commit-Before debate on this motion was concluded the hour for adjournment came. The debate may be resumed tomorrow, but it is possible that the bill will not be heard of again until Tuesday. The situation is encouraging to the friends of racing.

GOVERNOR SIGNS THE FOUST BILL.

Nashville, Tenn., February 8 .- Governor Patterson today signed the Foust bill and from this day the law of Tennessee makes betting on horse races at a track or away from one punishable by heavy

TO CURTAIL RACING IN KENTUCKY.

State Commission Says There Was Too Much of It in 1906-Dates Next Saturday.

Lexington, Ky., February 8 .- Unless the State Racing Commission experiences a change of views, there will be no prolonged meetings in Kentucky this year. The commission met in executive session for two hours today, and on adjourning Secretary Rouse announced that licenses for the year had been granted to the Kentucky Racing Association, New Louisville Jockey Club, the Douglas Park Jockey Club and the Latonia Jockey Club and that racing dates will be allotted at a meeting of the Commission to be held here February 16, to which the racing associations will be invited to send

Secretary Rouse also said that the Commission adopted the following resolutions:

"It is the sense of this Commission that there vas too much racing in Kentucky during the year 1906 and for the best interests of racing the dates should be reduced along certain lines. All of the members of the Commission were present today, they being Chairman J. P. Chinn, of Harrodsburg: Charles F. Grainger, of Louisville; Colonel E. F. Clay, of Paris, and Messrs. Milton Young and Louis des Cognets, of this city.

Congressman J. L. Rhinock and Harvey Myers were here in the interest of the Latonia Jockey Club, but they, as well as all others, were excluded from the meeting of the Commission.

EASTERN TRAINERS GETTING READY.

Horses Are Being Sent Out Daily in Large Numbers-Eyes on Frank Gill.

New York, February 8 .- Trainers are busying themselves for the opening of the racing season daily a number have their charges under saddle in long conditioning gallops. The boulevard is the favorite exercising ground and during the morning hours there are many horses shown. At Gravesend the track is in first class condition for this time of the year and also a ground that is well patronized.

Joe Kelly, who is handling the end of the Burlew & O'Neill string that did not go south, was, on hand early today with a set of two-year-olds. They are all good lookers and the relish with which they went about their tasks gives promise of good races early in the racing year.

The McLaughlin lot are also promising youngsters. and they are advancing well in their early prepara Old Oxford was in company with the baby division, and he is in excellent condition to com mence the hard drubbing of a season's training. is the intention of Jimmy McLaughlin, though to save the good gray until the Gravesend meeting. That will result in his being sent along slowly for ome time

Roger Minton was on hand with the M. L. Hayman string, but he was content to give them light shed exercise

Enoch Wishard arrived home from California Tues day night. He was greatly benefited by the trip, and though he has no horses at this time, he ex pects to have a stable together before the spring opening

J. Muir, who has been wintering at Gravesend track, moved Monday to his own stable in Gravesend avenue. The stable has been completely overhauled and is now one of the most modern at Gravesend Comedienne, of his string, has improved greatly through the cold months, and promises to sprinter of high quality during the coming season. Frank Gill is one of the three-year-olds that has attracted a great deal of attention among the stay at-home horsemen, and unless all signs fail, he will be one of the truly good ones when racing com-

EHRLICH GETS A NEW TRIAL.

Newport, Ky., February 8 .- George Ehrlich, who perates the poolroom at Huber's Garden, generally claimed to have the backing of Cella, Adler & Tilles of St. Louis, was recently fined $5,000 on the charge of maintaining a public nuisance. Judge Berry, sit ting in the Circuit Court, has granted Ehrlich a new trial on the grounds that the fine is excessive and that two of the jurors have admitted that they were prejudiced against the defendant.

FORWARD'S NEW SISTER.

Lexington, Ky., February 8 .- The first foal of season at August Belmont's Nursery Stud is a bay filly, by Hastings—Forsh, by Rayon d'Or. The youngster is a sister to Forward and other good winners. The first foal at Colonel E. F. Clay's Runnymede Stud is a bay filly, by Sir Dixon— Rosebay, by Hindoo. Rosebay is a half-sister to

MANCHESTER A GOOD COLT.

SON OF BANASTAR IMPRESSES RACING FOLKS AT HOT SPRINGS.

Jockey Helgesen Is Under Suspension-No More Racing in the Mud for Grosgrain-Tame Sport.

Hot Springs, Ark., February 8 .- Today's card at Oaklawn was a poor one, and there was little to enthuse over. The best race was the two-year-old for colts. Incidentally it was the only race that did not have an auction at its end. Manchester, the winner, is said to be the best youngster quartered at the track, and, judging by his appearance and per-formance, there is good grounds for the claim. He is a slashing looking fellow, resembling his sire, Banastar, even in action and disposition. in truly racehorse style, his opponents being hope-lessly beaten after traversing a furlong of the threeeighths trip. Manchester was bred by Clarence H. Mackay and Joe Hawkins has his racing qualities leased.

were frequent. The most notable one came in the third race when Storm, starting for the time this year, beat the heavily supported Theodocia, Storm's victory did not enrich the books to any considerable extent, as his connections backed him from a high price of 20 to I to 12 to 1 at post

For his poor handling of Chieftain in this race jockey Helgesen was given an indefinite suspension. The judges told Helgesen when he dismounted that he shall not accept any more mounts here until he has official permission.

After Grosgrain's victory in the last race the judges handed down a ruling barring that horse from starting here except when the track is fast. In his last start, which was on a muddy track, Grosgrain was deficient in speed, barely able to raise a gallop, and was hopelessly beaten off. Teday there was much activity in the betting ring, and his opening price of 6 to 1 was pounded down until 2 to 1 was the best obtainable.

The objection made by C. D. Stevens against the payment of the purse to J. J. Flannigan won by Skyward last night was sustained by the judges. The horse, according to the racing conditions, had carried five pounds short weight. First money was given to Cadillac, owned by C. D. Stevens. That owner later gave J. J. Flannigan $100 as a balm for the purse taken from Skyward.

C. E. Mahone telegraphed Judge Trevelyan to stop J. Lee from riding at New Orleans. Mahone says he holds a contract on Lee and wants him to come here.

BAD DAY FOR FAVORITES AT OAKLAND

Many Back Outsiders with Profit-Huerfano Wins for President Williams-Gossip.

Oakland, Cal., February 8.-There was another big crowd at the track today. The weather was glorious. Not so with the racing, however. There was nothing particularly attractive about the card. Every ring favorite was beaten, but the public did not suffer as much as might have been expected. They were skeptical today and declined to accept the chances of the layers. They took chances on the outsiders and, in many instances, cashed their tickets.

Walter Miller's only mount today was on Huerfano, President Williams' exquisitely bred threeyear-old, won at the lucrative price of 7 to 1. The dried-out going and the lengthened journey the slow beginning youngster materially. The victory of the in and outer Byronerdale, in a mile and a quarter, created adverse fourth at criticism. The unfair riding of L. Williams on this horse caused much dissatisfaction. He forced the favorite, Jake Moose, into the outside gutter on

"Cricket" Kelly is riding for Ollie Johnson. The boy rode for Baldwin at Ascot Park previously. Jockey Scoville, who is under contract to Keene Brothers, made his local debut resterday on Comilfo, after having been out of the saddle for several nonths on account of a broken leg. The weights for the $5,000 Family Club Handicap will be announced on Monday next. Denny Brothers arrived last night from Los Angeles with three horses including Lacene and Two Bills. W. W. Finn brought Treasure Seeker, Anona, Ray Egan, Sea Sick and Pimkim. "Handriding" Kelly is sick with pneumonia and may not be seen in the saddle again this season. J. M. Crane has purchased Jill from Louis Ezell.

Under the rules, Nealon, Temaceo, Rapid Water, Logistilla and Tony Faust must run as the Schreiber-Durnell-Hildreth entry if they all start and be coupled in the betting tomorrow.

Went to post at 3:54. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving: third the same. Tocolaw ranged quickly alongside of the leader, shook him off at the half and won as his rider pleased. Aaron J. outbroke the others and set the early pace, then succumbed to the winner, but gamely stood a drive through the stretch. Funny Side, from a flatfooted start, was shuffled back and inadequately handled, but finished an easy third. Hedgethorn, away badly, worked through a rough trip and was a fast going fourth. Jerry Sharp was well up at the end. Nigrette is not ready and suffered at the start. Hugh McGowan is a Joke in sprinting races.
